HAWTHORNE RACING.

The racing at Hawthorne yesterday was very tame in comparison with that of the day before, and the crowd present hardly seemed to be animated by the usual measure of interest in the sport.

Not one of the finishes was close, and had not Goebel broken the track record for three-quarters, and Croesus made a new mark for the track at one mile and a quarter the day would have been devoid of incident out of the ordinary line of an ordinary racing day. A couple of young ladies on horse back in the center field seemed a greater attraction to a portion of the crowd than did the races.

Goebel's race was the second on the card and he had to beat the consistent warrior Boney Boy. He did beat him but in doing so had to run faster than he ever has done before and also stand a drive part way through the stretch.

Boney Boy beat the barrier about a length and Vitatoo at once set out to kill the others off in the first part of it. He went the quarter down the back stretch in 23 1/2 seconds, but could not get away from Goebel, who was fresh and good and had speed to loan. The pair raced like a team around the far turn, but when they straightened away for home Boney Boy was a neck in front and the cry went up: "Boney Boy wins." Everett, however, had something up his sleeve, and although he never touched Goebel with his whip, he drove him hard with his hands and heels and about the eighth post he was a neck in front. At this point Vitatoo went to his whip but it was of no use as Boney Boy was out to the last ounce and tired enough to lie down. Goebel won rather handily at the end by a good length.

Croesus, who had been a maiden up to a few days ago, overcame himself in the long distance event and ran much faster than his owner or anyone else ever dreamed he could. He was backed and backed good by Sam and Ed Wagner and their friends who got a juicy price for their money. The gelding opened at 6 to 1 but not a penny was bet on him until the price drifted back to 10 to 1. Then the Wagners cut loose and at post time 6 to 1 was the very best price in the ring.

Rutter, who rode Uarda, set the pace, and, considering it was a mile and a quarter race, it was a terrific one. He rushed the filly to the front directly after the start, and stepping the first three-quarters in 1:14, had a lead of ten lengths. Around the far turn Uarda began to tire, and Croesus, stealing up slowly but surely, was within striking distance when the stretch was reached, and standing a hard drive through the final furlong, got up in time to win by a half length. Monongah, the even money favorite, could not keep up and finished a distant fifth. He was kicked in his last race, and this may have had a bad effect on him. Still, it was a very fast race throughout and he was not beaten so far off at the end. The race was run in 2:06 1/2. This takes a full second and one-quarter off the track record, which was held by Daily America. He carried 103 pounds and was a four-year-old at the time, June 6, 1895.

Tom Hayes has bat and lost twice on Lord Weir, but yesterday the colt ran the race he was expected to run some time ago, and with 10 to 1 against him romped home the easiest kind of a winner in the first race.

Old Meddler, who seems to be at his best now, tow-rope his field in the fourth event. He was presented with a running start and won away off by himself all the way.

Piccola was in a soft spot in the fifth, a mile dash for fillies and won as she should, eased up. Hanlight got the place and Ostra was third.

Rutter rode a skillful race on Robert Bonner in the closing mile race, and, coming away cleverly in the stretch, was pulling up a half dozen lengths in the lead at the finish.

Rutter has the style of riding with very short stirrups and while pulling Robert Bonner up after winning he fell off and the horse ran away a mile before he could be stopped. Of course Rutter would not admit that he fell off but claims the horse hit an obstacle and stumbled.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The result of the investigation of the contradictory running of the horse The Dauphin at Hawthorne is the issuance of the following decision by Judges Rees and Kuhl:

"June 12th, 108 pounds up, Kuhn jockey, distance one mile, was beaten off fifteen to twenty lengths. Fractional time, 25, 50, 1:08, 1:15, 1:42.

"June 14th, with four pounds additional weight up, Kuhn jockey, distance seven furlongs, won in an easy gallop by four or five lengths. Fractional time, 24, 48, 1:14, 1:28, the fastest race for the distance at this meeting up to that date.

"The explanation that the pace in the first race was one cause of his poor showing is denied by a comparison of the fractional time in the two races in question.

"The further explanation offered that the horse always has been a very inconsistent performer and one liable to get an owner or trainer in trouble at any time, prompts the question that if the owner thought so why not sell a horse of this character that only cost $400 for $600 when opportunity afforded, as in this case? We are satisfied some intelligent people thought pretty well of his chances to win on 14th, notwithstanding his disgraceful race on the 12th inst.

"Owing to the reputation of owner and trainer M. Feeney as vouched for by reputable horsemen we give him the benefit of any doubt that may exist. Jockey Kuhn is likewise exonerated.

"We, however, deem it advisable for the best interests of racing to recommend that the entry of the horse The Dauphin be refused hereafter by this association."

The well known trainer, Tom Berry, was ruled off at St. Louis Tuesday and with him the horses, Clay Poynter, Cherry Leaf, Prince Harry, Mr. Johnson, Auster, Bicolor, Pan Jette, Sorrel Rose, Tremble and Crystal Dome. A dispatch to the Tribune says:

"This is the final result of the Clay Poynter claiming case. On May 26 Clay Poynter was entered in a selling race for $300. The first money in the purse was $225, making the claiming price of the horse $525, far below his real value.

"Two claims were made for the horses, one by W. A. Wright, owner of Gomez, and another by Mr. Watts, of the firm of Benson, Watts & Co., represented in the race by Nannie L. Jimp won the race, Clay Poynter was second and Nannie L. third. Under the rules the owner of the horse finishing third has the prior claim, and the horse was therefore awarded to Mr. Watts, who subsequently retransferred him to Mr. Berry. Mr. Wright then filed a claim that Mr. Watts had only acted for Mr. Berry in making the claim. The stewards investigated and late Monday night awarded the horse to Mr. Wright.

Yesterday morning the horse was taken from the track, and when his absence was discovered the stewards immediately issued an order ruling off Mr. Berry and the horses."

The Suburban Handicap of this year will long be remembered for a variety of unusual features.

Winner—B. h. by Masetto—The Cat. Off at the first break to a good start. Won easily. The winner was much the best. Strathconan ran a good race and is improving and should win when rightly placed. GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Not the least sensational is the action of Banastar's owner, Mr. W. H. Clark, in retiring his jockey Maher from the privilege of riding for himself or anybody else during the life of his two years' contract. By this course and by plainly spoken words he has intimated that Maher purposely caused Banastar to be prac-
is a case the Jockey Club is bound to take cognizance of, though it has not yet done so. The boy is either guilty or innocent. If guilty, he should be punished unsparingly, if innocent, it will be of direct benefit to the turf to have the fact clearly established.

Winner—Ch. c. by Lord Esterling—Hannah.
Post 8 minutes. Start fair. Won under a double pull; second and third were driving hard. Lord Weir made his field look cheap. He showed in his work to be a good colt, and this is the kind of a race his owner expected him to win some time ago. He is a slow beginner and partial to a route. The Attorney and Annis Palmer both ran good races. The latter had a very rough journey. Mission finished very strong. Only bad racing luck kept him from being closer up. Zeriba showed a lot of speed. She was bumped and sharply interfered with at the head of the stretch. After that both she and Powell stopped trying. Wasanta hardly ran her race. She was sharply cut off on the far turn. There was a lot of interference in this race.
Scratched—12787 Sidarth, 106; 12680 My Eugenia, 103; 12802 Hattie Fox, 103; 12680 George-town II, 106; 12702 Mont Eagle, 103.
Overweights—Wasanta, 24 pounds; Crump, 11; Solace, 34.
Lord Weir, place, 3 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Commonwealth Attorney, place, 5 to 1; show, 24 to 1. Annis Palmer, show, evens. Wasanta, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 3.

Winner—B. c. by Bubbler—Morning Bride.
Post 10 minutes. Start poor. Won hand ridden. The others were driving hard. Goebel, under a good ride, ran a high class race. He hung to Boney Boy, who set a terrific pace, all the way and came away cleverly on call at the end. Boney Boy hung in the last fifty yards. He looks thin and drawn. Galathee got all tangled up at the start and was badly outrun. This clip may be too fast for him. Rose Apple ran a fine race. Mark her in slower company. The first three far outclassed the others. It was a new track record.
Goebel, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 3. Boney Boy, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Galathee, show, 1 to 2.

12882 THIRD RACE—1 1-4 Miles. Purse $400. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g. by Danboyno—Annie Layne.
Off at the first break to a poor start. Won in a hard drive of two; third and fourth driving as hard. Creosus ran a very game race. He was under punishment the last half mile. He has turned out to be a fine selling plater. Uarda was too much used the first part of it. Rutter used miserable judgment on her. More judiciously handled she would have won. Benamela was right there a little way. He was tiring badly, though, at the end and swerved in the last fifty yards. Monongah's race was not up to the mark. The gelding's race is easily accounted for. He was badly kicked behind and went to the post showing an ugly scar. The time made is a new track record.
Scratched—12758 Caducens, 107; 12691 Hosi, 103; 12804 Henry Launt, 112; 12487 Sunburst, 110; 12801 Pat Garrett, 92.
Overweights—Sutton, 24 pounds.
Creosus, place, 2 to 1; show, evens. Uarda, place, 4 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Benamela, show evens. Monongah, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Winner—Br. g. by Long Taw—Meddle.
Post 24 minutes. Start poor. Won eased up; second and third handily. Meddle got a flying start and was never in trouble. He set a terrific pace and is at his best now. Lucky Star was bumped into and badly interfered with on the first turn. This ruined whatever chance he had of winning. Elkin was running fast at the end. He wants a mile or over to show at his best. Sim W. was weakly ridden. Braw Lad seems to be of no present account. Simon D. had no chance from where he got away. It was a very unruly lot at the post.
Scratched—12718 Tony Licalzi, 107; (12721) Molo, 107; 12762 Yours Truly, 109; 12853 Einer, 104.
Overweights—Braw Lad, 1 pound.

Winner—Ch. f. by Fonso—Peony.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next two were whipped out. There was nothing to the race. Piccola was far the best and merely breezed all the way. This is a good filly under light weight. Hanlight ran an improved race. Ostra won't do over a route. She stopped to a walk after going three-quarters. The race was always between the first three.
Overweights—Piccola, 5 pounds.
Piccola, place out. Hanlight, place, 2 to 1. Ostra, show, out.

Winner—Ch. g. by Rossington—Belle of Nantura.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won pulling up. It was a drive for the place. Robert Bonner was the best and best ridden. He was rated along carefully down the backstretch, avoided all interference and when called upon went to the front like a flash. He seems to be an in and out. King's Guard ran his very best race and had no excuses. The Winner is a bad horse.

When he stopped, he stepped all over. Warren Point had miserable racing luck. He was shut out and interfered with at every turn. The others are of no account. Robert Bonner stumbled and threw Rutter after the race and ran away a mile before he could be stopped.
Scratched—12721 Elidad, 109; 12806 Ramona, 106; 12716 Winslow, 108; 12716 Tappan, 108.
